

SOCIALS1*Hold-vs-grow line

DO At conflict moments, say one calm sentence: "This is built to keep you here, not always to help you grow."

HOW Agree the sentence as a household. Use it instead of a long argument.

WHY Names the design — not the child as the problem.

SOCIALS2*Evening "For you" window

DO After a set time (for example 7pm), no algorithmic feeds. Messages can stay if the family needs them.

HOW Write the time on the fridge. Turn off feed apps' notifications.

WHY Tired brains get the stickiest ranking.

SOCIALS3*Arrival basket

DO When kids (and adults) come home, phones go in a shared bowl before snack or chat.

HOW Bowl by the door. Make it the first habit, every school day.

WHY First contact is human, not a feed.

SOCIALS4*Dinner = another room

DO Phones leave the table room — not face-down beside the plate.

HOW Same basket or a counter in the kitchen. Guests too, when you can.

WHY Removes the twitch to check.

SOCIALS5*Whole-house charging station

DO Charge devices outside bedrooms overnight — adults included.

HOW One strip in the hall or kitchen. Buy a cheap alarm clock if needed.

WHY Cuts night checks and status loops.

SOCIALS6*Limit + next yes

DO Every "no feed" comes with a named instead.

HOW On the fridge: "After 8 — shower, book, or cards." Update together.

WHY Empty time invites the feed back.

SOCIALS7*Door bowl + visit plan

DO For meals and visits, phones in the bowl. Before a friend hangout, agree: photos OK, feeds later.

HOW Three lines on a note: where, how long, phone plan.

WHY Belonging without a like button.

SOCIALS8*Weekly micro open-house

DO Same evening each week, welcome one friend or relative — low stakes.

HOW Put it on the calendar like practice. Tea, game, or a walk.

WHY Real social becomes recurring, not a rare treat.

SOCIALS9*Body appointment

DO One recurring move block (sport, dance, swim, martial arts, long walk).

HOW Treat it like a doctor visit — same day, protected.

WHY Skill and a tired body leave less craving for scroll.

SOCIALS10*Default walk

DO 10–20 minutes after dinner or as part of the commute.

HOW Phone pocketed or left at home. Rain = covered walk or stairs.

WHY Lowest-friction movement when clubs aren't possible.

SOCIALS11*Game shelf + rule card

DO Keep games visible. Put a small card on the table: "Phones away."

HOW Start with one short game night. Let kids pick the game.

WHY Practice focus and patience together.

SOCIALS12*Create before consume

DO Fifteen minutes of making before any entertainment feed.

HOW Draw, build, cook, music, Lego, journaling — timer on.

WHY Builds patience and effort the feed usually skips.

SOCIALS13*Weekly outdoor default

DO Park, street loop, or balcony sit — feeds stay inside.

HOW Same day each week if you can; set a short timer to start.

WHY The feed is not the main event.

SOCIALS14*Monthly simple trip

DO One easy outing a month (museum, woods, market, beach, grandparents).

HOW Write it on the fridge. Phones for maps and photos only.

WHY Wider world without algorithm ranking.

SOCIALS15*Recurring yes + rain plan

DO Pick a primary offline slot and an indoor backup.

HOW "Thursday game night / backup: cards on the floor."

WHY The appointment survives friction.

SOCIALS16*Make phones boring (stack the layers)

DO In protected slots, use more than one barrier.

HOW Charger elsewhere + shared basket + notifications off (+ a timer if useful).

WHY One layer is easy to break.

SOCIALS17*Adult habit in public

DO Name one change your child can see — and keep it for two weeks.

HOW Example: "I won't scroll at dinner." Say it once; do it.

WHY Kids copy what we do.

SOCIALS18*Two-adult pact

DO Agree the same rule with one other adult in your child's life.

HOW Co-parent, grandparent, coach, or neighbour. Check in once a week.

WHY Your child is not the only "no."

SOCIALS19*Physical phone-away

DO Use a caddy, pouch, or bag wall at the start of class or events — plus clear times.

HOW Post the times. Keep the tone calm and the same every day.

WHY Clarity beats nagging.

SOCIALS20*After-school offline menu

DO Give families a simple list of clubs, sports, and games they can join.

HOW One page, updated each term. Point to community options too.

WHY Shared yes makes limits feel normal.

Parent-night Socials block (20–30 min)

DO Twin line → each adult names one household rule → vote on 1-2 shared norms (for example sleepovers or delayed accounts) → leave this sheet.

HOW Keep it kitchen-table. No doom. No blame.

WHY Talk becomes action.
